2015 Rural Impact Awards Application

Rural Community Volunteer Award

For leadership, dedication, and noteworthy volunteer achievement beyond the call of one's professional duties to help improve their community.

The "Rural Community Volunteer Award" nominee can be any person who gone beyond the call of their professional duties to help improve their community. The person may be a well-known entity, or someone who works behind the scenes, nevertheless they have made an important contribution.

Provide answers to the following:

1. Please describe how this individual has made a distinctive contribution to the community through their volunteer efforts.
2. Provide specific example(s) of how this individual shows an understanding of community needs.
3. Give examples of the individual's positive contributions to the economic, health, or well-being of their community.
4. How does this individual show their dedication to the community through their volunteering?
5. Give examples of their overall leadership in the community.

Remember to include a biographical sketch of the individual (one page) and other pertinent information such as news articles, organization newsletters, letters of support or endorsement, or other documentation. Please be judicious.
